

I am completed against this proposed "broadcast flag" technology. This violates the intended fair use ideas framed in our current laws, and merely serves as a means of increasing the wealth, power and control of the media and content companies.